FOURTEEN MORE ASPIRANTS ENTER MARCH CAMPAIGNS

Fourteen candidates this week have entered the jousts on March 5. Many of the names add zest and color to the local political picture.

Last Friday Walter T. Kenney, painting contractor of Boston, who resides at 21 Devereaux st., took out papers for selectman. He has been both chairman and vice chairman of the Arlington Red Feather drives. He is president of the Boys' Club and a member of the K. of C., Touchdown Club, A. Y. A., and Elks. Last year he managed the successful campaign of Edmund L. Frost for selectman.

Opposing Kenney and the others already announced—Robert E. Mahoney and William A. Barnstead—will be Daniel M. Hooley of 268 Broadway and former Park Commissioner of Arlington. His family is a prominent one locally and has identified itself with the civic and political activity for over 70 years. For 15 years Hooley was chairman of Town Meeting members from Free. He served as Park Commissioner for 5 years. He was active with his support in the last town election and also in the State primaries and elections last fall.

Frederick Stanley Glynn Jr., of 91 Valentine rd. has entered his name for the Planning Board and is, at this date, unopposed. Glynn has been very active in the past three years. He has been defeated twice running for Library Trustees. He, single-handedly, obtained from the Town Meeting funds for a branch library on Massachusetts ave. in East Arlington. Since that time a committee, at the request of the Trustees, is out studying the possibility of a new building in that area. Glynn was one of the main leaders in highlighting the possibility of constructing class "B" streets, so-called. This year the town will have completed over twenty such streets. By profession he is a prominent engineer, specializing in foundations of big buildings.

Appointees To Run

Marshall Plan Appreciated By French, Claimed

Donald MacJannett of Pleasant st., assistant to the President of Tufts College, was the speaker at the January 3rd meeting of the Arlington Rotary Club. MacJannett is well known for his activities in France where he directed an American Preparatory School for American children residing in Europe and also for some European residents there during the period of 1920 to 1940.

In his talk Mr. MacJannett said "that in France, there was tremendous appreciation of American aid through the Marshall Plan."

MacJannett returns to France every summer taking a group of students from the United States who act as counselors for a group of selected orphans, sufferers of the war. These orphans are given eight weeks at a beautiful camp on Lake Annecy in the French Alps.

He illustrated his talk with colored movies showing the children in their varied activities as well as pictures of devastated cities of France and pictures of Paris and surrounding country.

Trackmen Lose, 39-38; Pucksters Down Rindge

Arlington trackmen dropped a heart-breaker to Medford Saturday in the second round of the Metropolitan Interscholastic Track League at the East Newton Street Armory by a 39-38 score.

Breaking his record of the previous week, Bill Squires, wing-footed Arlington miler, lapped four runners in establishing his 4:44.6 record, a full second under last week's time.

The Menotomy men dropped the hurdles, 600 and 1000-yard run, but took the relay in 2:10 to nearly edge Medford. A tie for first place in the high jump between Charles Leveroni and Medford's John McGrath and a first place in the shot put by football firebrand Paul Salisbury helped the cause of the "gas house gang" but not quite enough to win this one.

Arlington, having won one and lost one, is third in the Met Track standings in Division I. Medford and Brookline are all tied up for first place.

A vastly improved and progressing Arlington sextet continued its Joe victories in the G.B.I. League with a 4-1 decision over Rindge at the Arena Saturday.

With two Rindge men in the penalty box in the second period, the Spy Ponders capitalized with three goals in 53 seconds. Center Bill Vassil contributed two of them for the Burnsmen, with O'Brien and Noyes adding the other two.

With this win under their belts, the surprising sextet from Menotomy Town have moved up into third place with a 3-1 record. Cambridge Latin and Melrose share the top spot with equal 3-0 standings.

Arlington stands in a fair way to cause some trouble for opponents in the track and rink world of the schoolboys this season. An upset or two would do the trick.

Guest Teacher

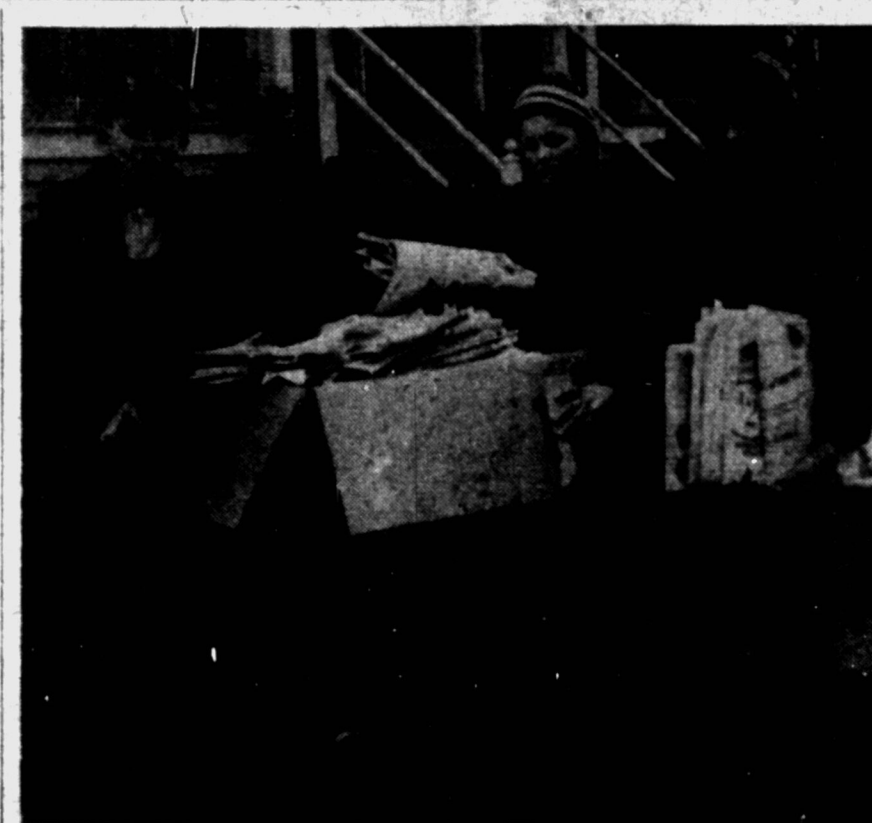

Mary Skeaping, ballet mistress of the Sadlers Wells Co., currently playing at the Boston Opera House, was guest teacher at Mary Corbett Burns School of Ballet yesterday. She as well as Mary Corbett Burns are proponents of the Cecchetti method.

On opening night, Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Burns and daughter, Judith, attended and were entertained backstage after the performance. The British ambassador was also in attendance, flying up from Washington.

158 POSTCARDS have been returned to the Civil Defense office as of yesterday afternoon by townspeople volunteering to serve. Have you?

NOTICE

If the person who removed Mrs. Perry's handbag from the Bell Shops in Arlington Centre last Saturday, Jan. 6, returns it intact, no action will be taken. However, if it isn't returned by Saturday, Jan. 13, the description of the party will be given to the police for prosecution.

HIGHLIGHTS

EMPLOYEES of the town have agreed to accept the 3% raise per 5 points rise in cost of living index, as offered by the "St. Paul Plan" committee, providing the Personnel Board grants a permanent, overall 5% increase, it was learned yesterday. [See MAT column, printed Tuesday, who hit nail on head except for explaining two committees are involved: personnel and special, cost-of-living committee.—Ed.]

TOWN CLERK GOLDEN is striving hard to have Precinct chairmen notify him of any changes in status of their respective members which may or may not affect their eligibility to serve. "We are making this effort by direct mail," he said, "so that each precinct will be fully represented."

PROOF OF ACTION was evident yesterday afternoon at the weekly meeting of Civil Defense deputy directors. Each was called upon by Director Dan McFadden to report. Vernon Rich, administrator of Symmes Hospital, gave an illuminating outline of his plans. He designated certain school buildings as auxiliary hospital, collection center and evacuation hospitals. Both chiefs of the Fire and Police departments defined the number of men they would need. Other sub-directors gave reports of clear progress. Have you volunteered yet?

Fr. Brennan Will Celebrate Masses On Next Sunday

The Rev. George S. Brennan, recently appointed by Archbishop Cushing as parish priest of St. James' Church took office on Monday, Jan. 8. Next Sunday morning, he will celebrate the masses and greet his parishioners at the 10:30 and 11:30 masses.

On Tuesday evening the new pastor will be tendered a reception in the upper vestry at 8:30 p.m. by the St. James' Branch, Massachusetts Catholic Woman's Guild.

Chairman of the affair is Mrs. Kathleen Cunneen, assisted by Mrs. Mary Carewe and Mrs. Mary Cochran.

Vesper Service To Close Week Of Meditation

A four o'clock Vesper service in recognition of the Universal Week of Prayer will be held on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 14, in the Pleasant Street Congregational church. Dr. Harold J. Ockenga, pastor of the Park Street Congregational church, Boston, will be the speaker. The choir of the Trinity Baptist church will sing the anthems.

This service will culminate the week of special prayer services in three sections of our community, carried on by the respective ministers of the town in cooperation with the Arlington Council of Churches.

People of the community are invited.

Committee Gives Views On Town Manager Form

Fourteen Inducted In 5th Draft Call

Fourteen more Arlington youths left in the 5th draft induction Tuesday morning after the usual gathering at Library Hall.

The Rev. Father William Linehan delivered the invocation and Rev. Halsey I. Andrews the benediction. Rev. Nathan Wood spoke to the group. Representing the selectmen for Arlington was Mark Sorensen and for Watertown, Chairman Roy Papalia.

Frank Breen, Commander of the Arlington American Legion, Post 39, and William Wallen of Belmont Post, 165, represented their respective detachments. The coffee canteen was supplied by the Arlington Elks.

Locals who left in the contingent are: Norman J. Martin, 9 Glen ave.; Warren Nahigian, 171 Mystic Valley parkway; Richard C. McSorley, 26 Fisher rd.; Francis X. Donovan, 26 Kilsyth rd.; Paul D. MacEachern, 84 School st.; Robert W. Swanson, formerly of 182 Overlook rd., now of Lexington; John L. Paragona, 141 Thorndike st.; Robert M. Crosby, 20 Cornell st.; Donald R. Sterner, 17 Court st.; Richard R. Simpson, 185 Oakland ave.; Robert J. Carlson, 6 Freeman st.; Robert W. Haubner, 12 Pelham ter.; Nishan K. Berberian, 40 Exeter st.

Doctors Must Register

The local Board has been informed that all male doctors, dentists and veterinarians under 50 years of age who are not registered in the Selective Service System's Special Registration for men in their professions must register between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday, January 15. Registration in this area will take place at the Local Board in the Robbins House, 672 Massachusetts ave. The Symmes Hospital also will have a special registrar there from 9:00 a.m. to 3 p.m. on that day.

11,000 Pieces of Mail Handled By Scouts

A delegation of Boy Scouts helped the Office of Civilian Defense in processing and mailing the pamphlets, "Protection Against the Atom Bomb," together with a letter from the Selectmen.

Under the capable leadership of Commissioner Horace Homer, with the assistance of Charles R. Armour and other Scout leaders, a "chain" was formed and some 11,000 pieces of material were handled. At peak, 200 were being processed every five minutes.

Scouts assisting in this valuable service to the community were: Troop 6—Sandy Mark, Donald Harvey, Richard Buxton, Jeffrey Collier and Robert Hall; Troop 5—Charles Eddy and Richard Martin; Troop 7—Otis Keating and Dana Kuhn; Troop 10—Edward Lillis, George and David Starkey; from Troop 13—Robert Armour and Richard Miano; Troop 41—John Holt.

OBITUARY JOHN SILK

Funeral services for John Silk, 63, retired sand and gravel contractor, will be held tomorrow with a solemn requiem mass at 9 a.m. in the Immaculate Conception Church, Cambridge. He died Tuesday night at his home, 43 Broadway.

Mr. Silk, who was born in Galway, Ireland, had lived in Arlington for more than 70 years. He had a host of friends. Silk street, off Broadway, is named in his honor.

He leaves his widow, Helen, a daughter, Mrs. Mary Fitzpatrick of Arlington, five grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Casserley of Galway, Ireland.

PRIZE WINNERS of the Howdy Doodly drawing contest, sponsored by Alons's Shoe Shop, are: first, Eleanor Tobin, age 9, of 30 Ronald rd., a beautiful record player; second, Charles Geoffrion, age 7, of 128 Mt. Vernon st., a scholarship in the local art classes.

A notable meeting was held last night at the Town Hall on the town manager form of government for Arlington. It was called by the committee which was empowered by the special Town Meeting last fall to bring in a Town Manager act at the annual town meeting next March. The views of the Committee and those in attendance were exchanged.

Chairman Doyle analyzed the proposed set-up as being the "strongest possible town manager form except for calling for the election of the offices of town clerk, town treasurer and board of assessors."

It was notable on three counts: the clarity and informality of the presiding officer, James C. Doyle, chairman of the committee; the ready participation by an interested audience; and the paltry few present—approximately 50.

It was proposed that the manager would be appointed for a term of 3 years, be a man specifically trained and experienced in the job, must not be a resident when appointed.

Preliminary organization charts were given out. In brief it showed the following proposed set-up:

Overall power and authority—the voters and town meeting members.

Elected officials and committees—selectmen (5), moderator (1), school (9), veterans' housing (5), town clerk, treasurer and collector, assessors (3). (All but the last three must be elected anyway by State statute).

Appointed by selectmen—town accountant, board of appeals, election of officers, registrars of voters, TOWN MANAGER.

Appointed by manager with approval of selectmen—planning (5), health (3), parks (3), library (5), cemetery (3), welfare (3), counsel, supt. of public works, tree warden, personnel board (5); also a new board called commissioners of trust funds to have charge of all funds except the library and cemetery.

Chairman Doyle explained the committee's authority and discussed briefly the chart. He pointed out the abolition of the Board of Public Works, those offices that were to be elected, and that all purchasing and the supervision of public buildings were under the jurisdiction of the manager.

On question from Francis J. Higgins it was stated that the finance committee would be appointed, as now, by the chairman of that committee, moderator and the chairman of the new board, trust fund commissioners (now the sinking fund chairman).

In answer to Allen H. Thompson, Chairman Doyle said that the manager would purchase for the school dept., except textbooks. Felix Cutler pointed out that in Quincy the manager bought the books, too, on requisition and selection of the library and school committees.

He also said that the chief purpose of the manager form was to provide a "corporate set-up" like a business. This purpose was defeated, he said, when the treasurer, town clerk and assessors are elected. "The committee has recommended too many elected officials," he declared. "It has created too intricate a device for economic government."

Committeeman Roscoe O. Elliot made the point—the less elected official, the less interest in elections. He felt that the present town clerk and treasurer would cooperate with the manager anyway. The matter of elected assessors was "more debatable."

Doyle pointed out the committee's recommendation reads that that elected officials (except selectmen) shall be subject to call by the manager to discuss policy. He pointed out that the offices of assessors, town clerk, and treasurer spent only 7.5 per cent of the budget in 1945, and even less, 4.6 per cent in '49. Big savings here could hardly be effected, he said.

Joseph Gaudet expressed distress that local residents were excluded from aspiring for the manager's job. Committeemen William F. Holian explained a man with no previous entanglements would be better, the committee felt.

Buy Property

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Gibson owners and operators of the Arlington Guest House, have purchased the large duplex house with the White Store at the corner of Jason st. and Massachusetts ave.

They are planning to accommodate more visitors to Arlington in the near future.

125 Pints Donated At Blood Bank

The Red Cross Blood Bank, held at St. John's parish hall on Monday, Jan. 8, was the most successful of those held here so far, with 125 pints donated. The highest number before this has been 97 in Oct., 1949.

The 100th donor on Monday's roster was Miss Grace Mooney of the Symmes Arlington Hospital staff.

Special appreciation is expressed by the committee to Dr. Richard Moran and Dr. Gordon Saunders, who covered the unit until the arrival of the Boston doctor; to Sam Doctoroff who headed up the group from the Rotary Club; Henry Lance and the Buttrick Company aggregation; William Mowatt and William Rule and their group from the Men's Class of the First Baptist church; and Joseph King for his assistance.

The local committee, with Mrs. Russell T. Hamlet as chairman and general director of Monday's activities, was most ably assisted by the following: canteen—Mrs. Francis Chamberlain, chairman, Mrs. E. W. Brilandson, Mrs. Lillian Boyer, Mrs. Elizabeth Tripp, Mrs. Joseph King; motor corps—Mrs. Edward Glidden, Mrs. Henry Lance; grey ladies—Mrs. Henry Lance; staff aides—Mrs. Theodore Gray, Mrs. Max Knobel, Mrs. Chester Black, Mrs. Leland Howe, Mrs. Ralph Entoras; Nurses' Aides—Mrs. Thomas MacCubrey, Mrs. Arthur Sampson, Mrs. Harold Estabrook, Mrs. Raymond Merrill, Mrs. Nelson Gray, Mrs. Gordon Williams, Miss Nellie Thomas; registered nurses—Miss Gertrude Redmond, Mrs. Sidney Simons, Mrs. Paul Long, Mrs. Carol Gustafson, Mrs. Louise Babin. Added to these volunteer workers was the regular personnel of the Mobile Unit from the Blood Center in Boston.

The Blood Bank will be here again in two months, on March 15.

To Give Lecture On Father's Poetry

Mrs. Rufina M. McCarthy Heller, of 212 Gray st. will recall events in the life of her talented father when she talks to members of the Elks Society on Jan. 14 at the Copley Plaza Hotel at 3:00 p.m. She has chosen for her subject: "Denis A. McCarthy, Irish Poet of Boston, 1870-1931."

To readers of a generation ago the writings of Denis McCarthy were well known and nearly every home contained at least one or two volumes of his delightful verse tucked into the family bookcase. Although the nostalgic love for his birth land was apparent through many of his poems, his deep devotion to America was equally evident.

Mrs. Walter J. Hubert of 35 Hawthorne rd. and Miss Lauretta L. McKenna of Acton st. were recently elected to membership in the Elks Society of Boston.

NEXT SUNDAY is annual pulpit exchange Sunday in the local Protestant churches.

AN EPIC STORY

The reading of the history of "The Parish of Saint John's" (appearing in abbreviated form in this issue) gives one a glow of inspiration. Here, truly, is an epic story of effort, tribulation and ultimate success. We congratulate the church, its members and its rector on the occasion of the diamond jubilee.

The first "home edifice" was erected in 1882, six years after the organization of the church; at the corner of Maple and Academy streets. A fairly large lot of land surrounded the building for future expansion. Later more land was procured for one thousand, four hundred and sixty-two dollars. Although the boundaries are not defined, the entire area must have been extensive considering the high value of the dollar and the cheapness of land in those years.

Thus we can try to visualize what the early leaders of the church planned. At this spot was to be an imposing and impressive building and grounds. Unfortunately in the space of a few short years, near financial disaster struck. Most of the land had to be sold in order to make ends meet. Gone was the picture envisioned by the early leaders.

The knowledge of this fact makes the final story (to date) of St. John's the more heroic.

In the depths of the depression of 1930-1933 plans were laid for a new church in an entirely new location on Pleasant street. So that the parish looked with courage at the new year of 1934 with the laying of the cornerstone on December 31, 1933 by Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill.

The modern history of St. John's is one of vigor and impact. Its church edifice with spacious community and Sunday School rooms, its fine organ and chimes, its graceful Gothic design is an inspiration. It took money and prayer, but above all faith:

*"Faith of our fathers, holy faith;
We will be true to thee, till death."*

ASK BEFORE GIVING

Quite frequently shoppers on the street and in stores are annoyed by solicitors for money for multitudinous "do-good" organizations. We have no quarrel with the worthiness of the cause, here. We would, however, like to bring out a few points.

If the shopper is annoyed, remember it is not the shopkeeper's fault. He is reluctant to take such a strong measure as calling the police. In many instances he has already requested the solicitor to leave but these people are trained to ignore such requests.

Further, the Police department and the Chamber of Commerce have set up a screening process whereby worthwhile local causes are recognized. The solicitors are given cards of sanction. Not much more can be done. The rest lies with the people. Ask for the permit card! In a majority of the instances no card will be brought forth. Therefore, it may be a racket and your money is wasted. Even more important is the point that rackets eventually defeat the worthy causes.

Think and ask before you give!

Forgiveness ought to be like a cancelled note—torn in two, and burned up, so that it can never be shown against one.

—Henry Ward Beecher

TO: CANDIDATES TOWN ELECTION

a) To answer a question posed very frequently, the Town Clerk determines the order of offices on the ballot, according to the Clerk's office. Naturally, precedence of previous years plays an important role.

b) Has any School Committee candidate ever thought of running on the platform: let the $7,000 per year Superintendent run the department, the Committee setting the over-all policy

That Man About Town

ROMAN

We see that the Progressive Party of Massachusetts, Oliver S. Allen, 39, of 14 Mott st., Arlington, as chairman, has published a flyer: a) all foreign troops must be withdrawn from Korea; b) our fleet must be withdrawn from Formosa; c) the Chinese government must be seated in the U.N. A headline writer might caption it (perhaps a bit succinctly)—Withdraw And Be Seated!

As we noted last week, the candidates for various town offices are beginning to flood the field. Before this reaches print, more will be in the running. As we write, four or five are now in the contest for Selectman. As is always true, when no one runs for re-election, more than usual will make the attempt to win. In our time, the most we can remember who contested right down to the wire, with one withdrawal, was in 1939, when seven entered the race and one got out.

Here are the present contestants: William Barnstead, unknown and a newcomer; Walter Kenney, well-known but running for public office for the first time; Robert Mahoney, who was elected in his first political race to the Planning Board last year; Daniel Hooley, once Park Commissioner but who has been politically quiet up to last year; and possibly Vincent Burns, who was defeated by Joe Purcell in the primary for the Senate last Fall and who has not yet declared for office but who has papers out.

We are reliably informed that George Harris will not be a candidate for any town office this year. Always a strong contender (he lost the Selectman race in 1949 by but 15 votes, a town record) Harris is evidently fed up with all the headaches that go with politics. However, he has made no public statement; may be none is necessary.

The tax rate situation looks pretty hopeless, as far as a deprease goes. We are going to make our annual prediction before election after we have our chance to examine the budgets and other requests for funds that will con-

TODAY'S Meditation

WEEK OF PRAYER

"... Peter was kept in prison; but earnest prayer for him was made to God by the church." (Acts 12:5, R.S.V.) Read Acts 12: 1-10.

NOT long before his death, H. G. Wells said that he had lost the cord which seemed to bind events together. He was convinced that in the present impasse there was no way out, or around, or through.

How different was the outlook of the Church when, in its dark hour, the Apostle James had been beheaded and Peter was being held captive in prison awaiting the same fate. There seemed to be no way out, or around, or through. There was, however, a way up; earnest prayer for him was made to God by the church.

There is no prayer of man that moves God more than prayer in time of extremity. Our utter helplessness touches His fatherly heart. Gone are our pride and selfish desire. In its place is a humility which makes us willing to take God's way for our lives. It may be a desperate humility but it opens the gates to His power, just as the prayer of the Church opened the iron gate for Peter.

PRAYER

We thank Thee, our Father, that Thou hearest us when we pray. At this moment Thou art listening and loving Thy children; yes, loving even me. In the name of our Master, the Saviour of the world. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

Circumstances cannot imprison me today; through prayer I abide in the Father's love.

Orange Grove Goodness

Running out of dessert ideas? Here's one that promises to please the whole family. Dorothy Muriel's Orange Chiffon Pie—made with pure orange juice and fresh orange gratings to give it that fresh-from-the-grove flavor. Egg yolks are added to make the custard filling rich and creamy. Then fluffy egg whites are folded in and the filling is ready for the delicately-browned and tender crust. The final touch comes later—just before the pies leave the bakery. Not until then are these Orange Chiffon Pies topped with fresh whipped cream. What a delight! You'll agree—when you serve it tonight.

"Completion Drive" Starts on Monday

The completion campaign for the Symmes Arlington Hospital will start Monday, Jan. 15. Town Clerk James J. Golden is chairman.
In 1949, a town-wide campaign was successful in raising some $192,000 from contributions. The total additional amount needed to complete needed improvements in the old part of the hospital, to equip a blood bank, to replace an out-moded elevator, to make-up-to-date changes in the operating and emergency rooms and to expand and improve the X-ray and laboratory departments and the post-anesthesia room, will run about $108,000 more.
The campaign's slogan is "Let's Finish the Job" and will last the three weeks from January 15 to February 5.
Under precinct coordinators, a crew of volunteer workers will contact some 7,000 family units in Arlington for donations. This includes Lexington, which is served by the Symmes Hospital.
It is understood the contributors in 1949 will not be asked to give again unless they so desire.
Headquarters for the Fund Drive are at 452 Massachusetts ave. in the center. Chairman Golden announced early this week that many more volunteers were needed to do the job and that he would welcome assistance from any resident of the two towns. He can be reached at headquarters by telephoning ARLINGTON 5-9233 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. week days.
Volunteers may also participate by contacting precinct coordinators. They are: Prec. 1, Robert Hauser; Prec. 2, Frank P. Doran; Prec. 3, Robert E. Mahoney, Paul Anderson and John E. Mitchell Jr.; Prec. 4, George H. Birtwell and Carlton Prince; Prec. 5, Elmer L. Scribner and Edward C. Regan; Prec. 6, Mrs. Chester J. Powers and Mrs. Muriel M. Copthorne; Prec. 7, Robert E. Wilton; Prec. 8, John Easton, Mrs. Minerva Farrow and Bavel Cummings; Prec. 9, R. Curtis Hamilton and George H. Fitzgibbons; Prec. 10, J. Wilbert Anderson; Prec. 11, Donald J. Bresnan; Prec. 12, Joseph Greeley and David Govenar; Prec. 13, Charles R. Armour and Daniel F. O'Grady; Prec. 14, F. Stanley Glynn Jr. and Mrs. Hal-lam T. Ring.

On the committee for arrangements were Mary Corogella, Patricia Harris and Margaret Callahan.
Besides dancing, ice cream, tonic and group singing were enjoyed.

High School friends of Connie Corelli decided to give her a surprise birthday party last Saturday night.
The affair rapidly snowballed. On the night over two hundred boys and girls gathered at Ye Lantern hall to dance and sing under the watchful eye of three chaperones.
Connie, now 17, was completely surprised proving that sometimes a secret can be kept. She was lured to the spot on the pretext that her mother had lost a ring at the hall the night before.
On the committee for arrangements were Mary Corogella, Patricia Harris and Margaret Callahan.

Men's Class To Present "Uncle Elmer" & Choir
"Uncle Elmer" and his "Pleasantville Choir," heard Sundays, 8:30 to 9:00 a.m. over WEEI, CBS Boston will appear, in person, at the First Baptist Church on Sunday evening, Jan. 14 at 7 p.m.
This well-known radio group which includes the "Pleasantville Choir," "Sunshine Trio" and "Neighborhood Quartette," is directed by Elmer C. Herskind, better known as "Uncle Elmer" to thousands of radio listeners. The group has appeared in many New England churches and has entertained in various hospitals as well as Army and Navy Camps.
The cast includes fifteen young men and women who are sincere in their efforts to be of service to humanity without distinguishing between race, creed or color. These young people work at their regular tasks every day and are employed as bookkeepers, stenographers, painters, clerks, and some are college students. They devote their spare time to bring to an enormous and appreciative audience not only worthwhile entertainment but an extremely interesting and helpful program.
The program Sunday evening will include some of the best-loved hymns in chorus, quartette, duet and solo arrangements. "Uncle Elmer" is a superb leader of congregational singing. Between songs he talks to his audience in a friendly, philosophical way and always uses a generous variety of inspirational poems.
Delegations from other churches and organizations have been invited to attend. It is expected that an unusually large audience will be present. No admission will be charged. However, a free-will offering will be taken.
The program is being presented by the Men's Class of the Church.

BOYS' CLUB DADS TO MAKE TOWN-WIDE PAPER DRIVE

With two-fold purpose—patriotism and fund raising, the Dads of the Arlington Boys' Club will launch an all-out drive to secure support for a scrap paper collection, scheduled for Sunday, Feb. 25.
Determined to continue their subsidization of the bowling program, the Dads are asking the cooperation of all householders in Arlington. Pledge cards, asking residents to save their newspapers, magazines and cardboard, are being distributed throughout Arlington by the Dads and the Boys' Club members.
The boys at the club are competing with each other in securing scrap paper pledges. Prizes donated by the Dads cover a variety of Boys' Club emblems and pins.
All householders willing to help the Boys' Club continue its great work are urged to contact the Arlington Boys' Club at 60 Pond lane or call AR 5-1617 and death of her mother.

Police Chief Archie Bullock says, "I heartily endorse this project. Not only will it help the national defense effort, but also the Boys' Club which does such important work locally."
Chief Bullock was one of the founders of the local club.

Local Club NotesST. JAMES' HOLY NAME

The members of St. James' Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 7:30 o'clock Mass next Sunday. Immediately after they will adjourn to St. James' Hall for the monthly meeting, at which the guest speaker will be Joseph P. Greeley, former altar boy at St. James' Church and member of one of the oldest families in the parish. Greeley is the first man from the parish to be honored with the exalted position of Grand Knight of the Arlington Council, Knights of Columbus.

Also on the program will be the O'Hara sisters, Anne and Barbara, who will entertain with a harmony duet. The program chairman, Frank C. Winters, who will introduce the program, will be presented by the president of the Society, Frank Hart. Preceding the meeting, a light collation will be served.

The Holy Name Society will conduct a paper-drive Sunday afternoon, starting at 1 p.m. The proceeds will go for the purchase of a movie camera and portable P.A. system for the school and hall, to be used by all societies of the parish.

The Society is also planning and has started rehearsing for a minstrel show to be put on March 16-17. Francis A. McNulty is the director.

Other officers and committeemen, assisting the Rev. Robert W. Shea, spiritual director, are Arthur J. Macdonald, John W. Rooney, John Kedan, Clarence Cochran and Paul Jennings.

PEIRCE P. T. A.

The Parent Teacher Association of the Peirce School will hold its next meeting on Jan. 18 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium with Mrs. George W. Lea, presiding.

The well-known Paul Revere Bell Ringers of Bedford will entertain Mrs. Beatrice M. Hutchinson of the Massachusetts Society for Social Hygiene will be the guest lecturer on the subject, "Sex Education for Children." The film "Human Growth" will be shown along with Mrs. Hutchinson's lecture. A question period will follow.

Refreshments will be served. Classroom visiting will be from 7:30 to 8 p.m.

EMBLEM CLUB

The Arlington Emblem Club will hold its 17th annual birthday banquet on Thursday, Jan. 18, at the club's quarters, 661 Mass. ave. at 6:30 p.m., the occasion being held to honor all past presidents. Chairman Minnie Canistrano and Co-chairman Maude Dow are supported by Mary Billings, Mary Bertagna, Pearl Katz, Helen Houser, Eleanor Campobasso, Lillian Brilante, Mary Gironi, Sadie Capello, Mary Oteri, Mildred Fitzpatrick, Frances Errico, Fay Kahn, Rose Manning and Mary Stella.

Dancing will follow.

ARLINGTON GARDEN CLUB

Increasing popularity of the Arlington Garden Club study group meetings was indicated by the large attendance which gathered at the Library Hall last Wednesday for the third meeting of this series, under the direction of Mrs. Francis J. Davidson.

Mrs. Frederick O. Johnson, charter member of the club and well-known authority on horticulture, gave valuable information, as she outlined most important basic principles necessary for the planning and planting of successful gardens.

Mrs. John B. Proudfoot who has earned many blue ribbons for her flower arrangements exhibited at flower shows, displayed and explained the proper procedure necessary in assembling dried arrangements.

The program for the next meeting will include a talk on "Pruning" by Mrs. O. Walter Swensen, "Spraying" by Mrs. G. William Anderson, and "Suggestions For Planting Shrubs and Plants For Use in Flower Arrangements," by Mrs. Leroy G. Shaw.

FLORENCE CRITTENTON

The January meeting of the Arlington Circle of Florence Crittenton League will be held in the vestry of the First Parish church on Jan. 17 at 2:30 p.m. with Mrs. Wendell A. Osborn presiding.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Robert Rice will give a book review.

Tea will be served by Mrs. Preston Ware, assisted by her committee.

Prospecting the Project(ARLINGTON VETERANS' HOUSING PROJECT)
by Harriet Fitzgerald

Do you remember the old adage concerning those who play with fire will get burned? Well, Edward Coyne of 144 Gardner st., had no intentions of playing with it, but he still succeeded in causing a conflagration which resulted in rather severe burns about his head and face. Eddie had determined to do a fine piece of work in cleaning a floor with turpentine.

He paused to light a cigarette and survey his masterpiece when a small spark ignited the container of turpentine which he had been using. Eddie immediately opened a window, intending to dispose of the burning mass outside, when a sudden gust of wind caused it to blow back into his face. The result was a very painful injury and an unexpected and unwanted vacation from his duties as an M.T.A. guard. One of Eddie's more well-known sympathizers, one of my favorite touring comedians, Frank Fontaine of Medford, brother-in-law of Mrs. Coyne, the former Gladys Wakeham. The Coyne are the parents of three children, Eddie Jr., Bryan and Carol.

A new daughter, born Dec. 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Doherty of 14 Fremont st., was christened.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS

Starting the fortieth anniversary year, Court St. Agnes, Catholic Daughters of America, will attend 8:30 o'clock mass in a body on Sunday, for the annual communion, with breakfast to be served immediately afterward in St. Agnes' Hall. The Rev. Oscar O'Gorman, chaplain, will celebrate the mass in the lower church.

The guest speaker will be the Rev. Alonzo McDonnell of the Paulist Fathers. Among the guests expected will be Miss Mary Dooley, state treasurer, and Mrs. Margaret Fogarty and Miss Alice Craffey, state deputies. There are twelve living charter members, some of whom are expected to be present.

Soloists will be Miss Mildred Dennen at the church and Mrs. George Scott at the breakfast, both to be accompanied by Miss Dorothy Geary.

Miss Frances Ahern is chairman of the breakfast, assisted by Mrs. Catharine McCarthy as co-chairman. Mrs. Anna Ryan, Grand Regent, and others of Court St. Agnes will celebrate its fortieth birthday in April.

On Monday the Court sponsored a dance for the younger members and servicemen stationed at Fort Devens and Bedford Air Base.

LOCKE P. T. A.

The Locke School P.T.A. will hold its annual Fathers' Night to night at the school auditorium at 8 P.M. Mrs. Spencer Dormitzer, president, will preside over a short business meeting before the entertainment of the evening is presented.

Charles Blackmon, with the assistance of David Ashton, will present a quiz show in which the parents will participate by answering questions submitted by the pupils of the school. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Richard Boyer and her committee.

CATHOLIC WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. William Houlihan and Mrs. Paul L. Keating are co-chairmen of the next afternoon bridge and whist party of the Arlington Catholic Woman's Club to be held Tuesday, Jan. 16 at 2 p.m. in American Legion Hall.

Members constituting the committee are Mrs. Patrick Duddy, Miss Margaret Duggan, Mrs. Alfred Dwyer, Mrs. Philip Fanning, Mrs. William Fitzmaurice, Mrs. Arthur Flaherty, Mrs. William Foohey, Mrs. Joseph Forest, Mrs. Arthur Foster, Mrs. Frederick Gallagher, Mrs. Allan Galpin, Mrs. Joseph Galvin.

Also Mrs. Winslow Garrett, Mrs. Francis Gavin, Mrs. William Germain, Miss Mary Horgan, Miss Nora Hurley, Mrs. Bernard Hutchinson, Miss Alice Jones, Mrs. Stephen Keefe, Mrs. James Kelly, Mrs. Albert Kellier, Mrs. Catherine Latsey, Mrs. Martin Gillespie, and Mrs. Thomas Hannabury.

ST. JAMES' P. T. A.

The Rev. Timothy J. O'Leary, Ph.D., assistant superintendent of schools in the Archdiocese of Boston, was guest speaker Monday evening, Jan. 8, at the P.T.A. meeting of St. James' school. His subject was "Catholic School System."

In the absence of the new pastor, the Rev. George S. Brennan, the Rev. Robert W. Shea spoke a few words of greeting and gratitude for the program and expressed his regret at being unable to be present.

The meeting was conducted by the president, George Cox, who turned it over to Robert Hawes, program chairman. The program also included vocal selections by Miss Marion Slattery accompanied by Mrs. Roderick MacDonald. Buffet lunch was served by Mrs. Philip J. Whitney and Mrs. Michael Kelly, co-chairmen of the hospitality committee.

High School Orchestra To Play At Winchester

Tomorrow morning (Friday) the High School Orchestra with its director, L. Haasler Binzig, will go to Winchester High School to give a concert in combination with the Winchester orchestra for the school assembly.

Two weeks from tomorrow, on Jan. 26, the Winchester group will come here to join the A.H.S. orchestra for a concert at the Junior-Senior class assembly. Miss Eleanor Annafantis of Paul Revere rd. is one of the music supervisors in Winchester. Fred Felmet is director of the W.H.S. orchestra.

Town Topic

—John A. Beckett, 14 Upland rd., has been appointed a member of the committee on education for the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants, according to an announcement by Richard S. Chamberlain, president. In addition to his activity in the Massachusetts Society, Beckett is also a member and director of Boston Chapter National Association of Cost Accountants, and the American Management Association.

Seventy-five Years in Retrospect

Sketch of highlights in St. John's Church history.

"In 1875, when the town of Arlington, Massachusetts was a community of about 3,900 persons, it contained a small group of Episcopalians among its citizens, with no local parish. The name of the town had until about ten years before been West Cambridge and the Episcopalians here were a part of St. James Parish in North Cambridge. Seventeen families or "sixty souls" from Arlington were on its rolls.

"On the afternoon of October 3, 1875, in response to the call from Rev. Theodosius S. Tyng, rector of St. James, sixty-five local churchmen attended the first Episcopal service in Arlington. At the request of Mr. Tyng, the Rev. David Greene Haskins conducted the service which was held in the Town Hall of that date. St. James furnished a mellophone and a group of singers for the service of Evening Prayer.

"Here was the inception of an independent parish in Arlington. A proud fact is that in just over three months, or on January 19, 1876, the organization of St. John's Church in Arlington was completed. That is the occasion for the observance at this time. (On March 8, 1877 a parish meeting vote changed the name to read "The Parish of St. John's Church in Arlington" which has remained the legal name)

"Conditions were difficult at the start, since the country was in a period of depression, following the panic of 1873. However, under the inspiring leadership of Mr. Haskins, who was elected the first rector at the meeting of January 19, 1876, a movement was soon started for a church building. August 8 of the same year it was voted to purchase a lot at the corner of Academy and Maple Streets for the price of $1,200. Due largely to the energy and acquaintance of Mr. Haskins contributions of $2,364.31 were secured for a building fund, many from prominent Episcopalians in Boston and vicinity. This effort resulted in the erection of the first parish edifice at a cost of $2,700. The building was evidently completed early in 1877, for the Arlington Advocate reported in February that "pews have been placed in St. John's Episcopal Church" although the record indicates that the first service was not held in the new church until October 21, 1877. Services were held in this building until June of 1934 when the second edifice and present impressive church on Pleasant Street was first occupied. It is a coincidence that the present church was likewise a project of faithful souls in the midst of an economic depression.

"Rev. Mr. Haskins resigned on May 10, 1880, after having reconsidered such action in 1878 on urgent pleas of parishioners. Rev. Charles L. Hutchins, rector of Grace Church in Medford, was willing to assume charge in Arlington in addition to his own parish work at no personal compensation. When Mr. Hutchins resigned in 1882 he was urged to remain but recommended compliance with the Diocesan plan and acceptance of having for the first time a resident minister. At the same time he made the gift of an altar to St. John's.

"Rev. Charles Morris Addison was called to be rector and he assumed active charge on September 1, 1882, making his home in Arlington and thereby becoming the first resident minister. In 1883 the rector's salary was increased to $400 and the same amount was voted for music for a year. Growth of the parish in this period was "marked" as noted in the Diocesan Report for 1884 when the St. John's parish dispensed with support from the Diocesan Board of Missions. Also in this year a lot in the rear of the church was purchased for $1,462, $200 in six months and the balance in three years. Unfortunately most of this lot was sold in 1887, when finances were again difficult, thus preventing expansion of the church building.

"Incident to the 10th anniversary of the parish in 1885, the Advocate had an article about Arlington entitled "the Pearl of the Western Suburbs" and referred to "the shrine of a little band of Episcopalians" and again it noted St. John's as the "church around the corner."

"The Rev. Charles J. Ketchum became rector following Mr. Addison's departure and he served for four years.

"In July 1889 the Rev. Thomas Bell became rector, assuming charge also of St. James, West Somerville, with a stipend of $600 from each parish, but Mr. Bell was only here until the following March. A short interim period of which no record appears was followed by the ministry of the Rev. Frederick Pember for a year beginning in September 1890. Finances were still a problem, with a debt of $260 reported in May 1891.

"The Rev. Martin K. Schermerhorn became rector in December 1891. A gift of $100 from Bishop Phillips Brooks enabled the parish to start the year 1892 free from debt. In spite of all efforts to keep expenses to prime essentials more difficulties were confronted in 1892 and in December Mr. Schermerhorn reported that only about 25 of 100 families or parts of families were regular subscribers. Results were very discouraging for a zealous man.

"Nevertheless, in 1892 an annex to the church, or a parish room, was erected at the rear of the building. This subsequently became the chancel when the building was enlarged and improved in 1915.

"In April 1894 Mr. Schermerhorn resigned. His successor was the Rev. C. M. Westlake. In 1895 the mission in East Arlington was discontinued after eight years existence, as the rooms for its meetings were no longer available.

"Rev. W. S. W. Raymond assumed charge in April 1896, resigning in July of the next year. Then began, in December 1897, one of the sustained rectorships in the life of the parish, when the Rev. James Yeames assumed charge and held it for thirteen years.

"Mr. Yeames reported that he found the parish 'in a much reduced condition'—the church property needed repair and the first congregation was 21 persons and the Sunday School showed 15 included teachers. But the town was beginning to grow more rapidly. The population in 1895 was 6,515 and 8,603 in 1900.

"While Mr. Yeames took over under most discouraging conditions, extensive improvements were undertaken in his first year. An old, ugly stove in the north corner of the nave was replaced by a furnace in the basement. The exterior and interior of the church were painted. Bishop William Lawrence gave $100 towards the improvement of the interior. A two manual organ, second hand, was purchased for $800 and it served until the present church was built in 1934.

"Observance of the 25th anniversary came during Mr. Yeames' rectorship on January 20, 1901. Rev. Dr. Hutchins, of early St. John's history, preached the sermon. An organ recital and a get-together of members old and new were held. 1905 was the year of attention on expansion. A Building Fund was started which became important later. The Peck mansion on the site of the present church was purchased for $7,500 to provide a Parish House. Donations and the Building Fund, together with a $5,000 mortgage, made this possible.

"Mr. Yeames ended the longest rectorship so far in the history of the parish when he resigned in December 1910. He had seen the list of communicants grow from 50 to 210 and the Church School from 15 to 167.

"One more short rectorship followed when the Rev. Samuel Neal Kent assumed charge in April 1911. Mr. Kent came to Arlington as a deacon and was ordained to the priesthood on December 11th in St. John's. During his tenure a mission in East Arlington was again started, services being held in a store on Massachusetts Avenue, but were only continued for a few months. In 1916 St. John's relinquished its parish rights in the east end of the town and a mission was again started as a separate program under the diocese. Rev. Warren A. Bixby assumed charge and in 1919 the attractive church building on Marathon Street, the Church of Our Saviour, was first occupied. It is pertinent to mention that Mr. Bixby is in his 35th year as sole rector of this parish.

"Mr. Kent resigned in October 1918 and St. John's was again without a rector until the Rev. Charles Taber Hall was called and held his first service February 8, 1914. Mr. Hall was destined to hold charge until Easter Day of 1941, a rectorship of over 27 years. When he took charge plans for enlargement to meet the needs of a growing parish were paramount. George A. Chickering, senior warden and an architect, contributed freely of his technical knowledge in 1915 in the transformation of the old Parish Room into an adequate chancel, while a choir room and a rector's robing room were added. The cost was from $3,000 to $3,500 the Diocesan Re-enforcement Fund contributing $1,000 of this amount. The work was done in the summer and on September 26, 1915, the first service was held in the renovated building.

"The observance of this semi-centennial began on Sunday, January 17, when Mr. Hall gave an historical sketch. In his address he said 'after 50 years of progress, not spectacular but on the whole steady and sure' the parish has 215 families and another 43 individuals. The Church School has 120 pupils with 19 teachers and officers. A week of events marked this Golden Anniversary, ending with a Service of Lights on the following Sunday.

"It was in June of 1933, meantime, that the vestry voted to engage Arland A. Dirlam, architect, to draw a preliminary sketch with specifications for a proposed new church. On July 19 Mr. Dirlam submitted drawings and the then Junior Warden, George A. Chickering, showed a drawing of a church estimated to cost $40,000. About $52,500 was paid in full over a period of approximately nine years, or by May of 1942. At the start there was a Building Fund of about $5,000 and then the $5,000 Wellington bequest. Donations and pledges over a period of three years added $8,000. The old church building was sold to the Friends of the Drama for $8,200.

"Bishop Henry Knox Sherrill laid the cornerstone of the new St. John's on December 31, 1933. In the hermetically sealed box placed in the cornerstone are a list of those contributing to the Building Fund, a list of registered communicants of the parish, a brief history of the church, names of parish officers, parish organizations with the chief officer of each, various issues of The Kalendar and of the Arlington Advocate, the key to the former Parish House, which was razed to make room for the new church, a few coins and other mementoes.

"Mr. Hall continued his leadership of the parish until Easter Day of 1941. He was succeeded by the Rev. Robert McConnell Hatch, who had been an assistant at Trinity Church, Boston. Mr. Hatch's ministry was short, but marked by enthusiasm and devotion. He was ably assisted by his wife, the former Helen Addison, granddaughter of the first resident rector, Rev. Charles Morris Addison. During Mr. Hatch's stay the mortgage on the church was liquidated and, on October 11, 1942, a service of Consecration was held. Among those present was Dr. Addison, who had been the Rector sixty years before.

"Mr. Hatch was succeeded by the Rev. Halsey Irwin Andrews as of June 1, 1945. It is timely here to note that the first memorial window was placed in the church on June 24, 1945, Mr. Hatch returning for the dedication. This window, (St. Raphael) one of a series of four at the rear of the church, is in memory of Mary Jane Dickson, an early member of the parish. The second window (St. Michael) was dedicated in January 1947 to the memory of Harry Revell, and the third (St. Gabriel) in June 1949 to the memory of Walter Henry Cosman. The fourth (St. Uriel) has been reserved for future installation.

"Mr. Andrews' rectorship, beginning in June 1945, has already become the third longest in the history of the parish. Under his leadership St. John's has gone steadily ahead in membership and strength. Active also in the community, Mr. Andrews was one of the prime movers in the founding of the Arlington Council of Churches in 1947 and the Council's first president. He is the present president of the Arlington Ministers' Association.

"Now we stand at this present, facing the future in a world beset with tremendous problems that may seal the destiny of mankind for hundreds of years. Our past has been one of faith in God and in the dignity of man. Our future will be dedicated to nothing less than the will of Almighty God as revealed to us through Our Lord, Jesus Christ."

"Faith of our fathers, holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death."

Bradshaw Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Anna Bradshaw Guild of the Pleasant Street Congregational church was held in the church vestry Jan. 8, with Mrs. Elmer E. Barber in the chair.

Mrs. Einar T. Larsen as devotional leader had an inspiring message for better living in the coming year.

The many reports given by officers and committee chairmen showed the Guild financially and spiritually strong.

Mrs. Leonard D. Wood as nomination chairman presented the slate of officers which was received. The secretary cast one ballot, electing Mrs. Harold B. Wood president; Mrs. Morton C. Bradley, vice president; Mrs. David R. Kennedy, reporting secretary; Mrs. Gordon P. Thompson, assistant secretary; Mrs. Grace B. Mitchell, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Glenn E. Owens, treasurer; Mrs. Clarence A. Russell, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Walter C. Sargent, auditor.

Ashley Day Leavitt, D.D., interim pastor of the church, was the speaker. He urged steadfastness in carrying out the will of God in our daily lives that we may say at the end, "It is finished."

The executive board served tea, with Mrs. Robert E. Wason pouring.

A. V. N. A.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Arlington Visiting Nursing Association was held Tuesday morning in Library Hall. The Rev. R. J. Fessenden, former chaplain at Massachusetts General Hospital and now on the faculty at Harvard University, was the guest speaker and gave an excellent and most enjoyable talk on "Understanding the Patient."

Coffee was served by Mrs. Clarence Brown and her committee, comprising Mrs. Andrew Magnus, Mrs. Charles Surette, Mrs. Hallam Ring, Mrs. Robert L. Moore, Miss Caroline Fandel and Miss Lucinda Spofford poured.

The following slate of officers was elected: president, Mrs. Francis Chamberlain; first vice-president, Mrs. Hallam Ring; second vice-president, Mrs. Lawrence R. Eaton; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edwin A. Barnard; recording secretary, Miss Edith Winn; treasurer, Mrs. Frederick Hill; newly appointed directors, for three years, Mrs. Arthur Sampson, Mrs. Ross E. Chaplin, Miss Katharine Terrington, Mrs. Charles Buckingham, Mrs. Robert L. Moore; for two years, Mrs. F. J. Davidson; for one year, Mrs. F. W. Goguen. Serving on the nominating committee were Mrs. Arthur Birch, Miss Isabelle Hallett and Mrs. Arthur Sampson.

Red and Gray Jottings
by Eleanor Derby

Christmas vacation is over and we've received our second term report cards. Now things have settled down again to normal routine.

After losing its first game to a strong Belmont team, the Arlington High School hockey team has won three straight, defeating Medford, Newton and Rindge. Come on gang!

Two Arlington High School seniors, Marius Robinson and Dana Spencer, participated in a scientific discussion Sunday evening over Station WHDH. The subject discussed was, "What Can Science Tell Us About The Universe?" Others included in the discussion were eminent professors at M.I.T. and Harvard College.

Seniors planning to take the Scholastic Aptitude tests are anticipating, with dread, the rapidly approaching date, January 13th, the day the tests are to be given.

The Arlington High School basketball team won its first league game against Woburn, and went on to drop the second one to Cambridge Latin. The third game was played at Brookline and resulted in a tie. Dancing followed this game and was enjoyed by all who attended.

This week the Red and Gray spotlight shines on Margie Block, Malden's gift to Arlington High. Margie's senior year is her first one at A.H.S. She is an active member of the Gilbert and Sullivan Club, and gives up much of her free time to serve as accom-

Work on the yearbook for the Class of '51 is being completed. Carl Canzanelli has been appointed as business manager.

The Christmas issue of the Chronicle was very successful, as usual. Lorraine Kelly won the contest to identify the "Thing." Her entry—a mirror.

The Young People's Fellowship of St. John's Episcopal church will present their annual "Feast of Lights" pageant on Sunday, Jan. 21, at 7:30 p.m. The pageant will include the Nativity scene, the calling of the twelve Apostles, and the carrying of the Light of Christ out into the world by the congregation. It is hoped that many parishioners and non-parishioners alike, will come to witness this beautiful service.

POLICE WIVES

A meeting of the Arlington Police Wives Association was held on Jan. 3, at the D. A. V. hall. Mrs. Mary Barry, the newly elected president, conducted the meeting. The other new officers include Mrs. Mary Seabury, v.p.; Mrs. Elizabeth Greely, sec.; and Mrs. Jean O'Leary, treas. It was announced that a bridge and whist party will be held on Tuesday evening, Jan. 30, at D. A. V. hall.
